Re: In the Matter of Petition of USTelecom for Forbearance Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

I use Sonic. The Telecommunications act specifically had it in provisions that telecom giants like AT&T would honor existing lines. Now they're trying to get out of said promise because they want to control more of the internet. Oddly, they claim that no one uses wire -- if so, why get rid of the ability for carriers like Sonic (which I currently use) to use the network? Because this is a bid to get rid of competition and force consumers to use their products.

It is anti-competition. Period.

Block their bid.
